Sir:

LETTER REQUESTING WITHDRAWAL OF OFFICE ACTION AND CREDIT DEPOSIT ACCOUNT

Applicant filed a request for a continued prosecution application on May 29, 2002. In the request, applicant directed that any filing fees not be charged to a deposit account and furthermore did not include payment of the filing fee. Accordingly, applicants expected to receive a Notice To File Missing Parts requesting that the filing fee be paid within a specified time period. Instead, applicants received an Office Action mailed June 12, 2002. This Office Action was apparently improperly issued. Applicants did not pay any filing fee at the time of filing the continued prosecution application and instructed the Patent Office not to charge the deposit account of the undersigned. It appears the Patent Office has charged our deposit account for the filing fee. Accordingly, applicants respectfully request that our deposit account be credited in the amount of $740.00 and that Office Action mailed June 12, 2002 be withdrawn and that a Notice to File Missing Parts be issued specifying a time period for payment of the filing fee.

Respectfully Submitted,

George I. DAVIDA and Yair FRANKEL
